Dear Kaleidoscope House and Building Designers and Parents,

Welcome to the exciting class of House and Building Design. Sandra Blumenthal will be your teacher for this terrific Kaleidoscope course which runs from July 26-30. You will have the opportunity to design and build your very own house, castle, or special building. In order to create everything you need to make your structure exciting, many supplies will be provided. You will be able to add as many details as your imagination allows. If you happen to have any of the following items not being used in your homes and would like to donate them to our supply box (or save them for your own building), that would be great!
